

Stefan Rademacher

Acoustic and electric bass guitar

Born in Duesseldorf, 1961. Grows up in Krefeld, Germany.

After graduating high school and social service in Krefeld, he studies medicine (Duesseldorf) and acupuncture (Sri Lanka).

1986 masterclasses with Dave Holland (Banff, Canada). Professional musician since 1987.

TV program »Jazz-In-Concert« with Lee Ritenour, Don Grusin and Tom Brechtlein (1989).

1994 to 2007 member of the Billy Cobham Band; collaboration with Randy Brecker, Gary Husband, George Duke, Hiram Bullock, Dean Brown, David Samuels and others.

5 CD- and 2 DVD recordings.

Guest soloist with WDR Big Band Cologne and Bochum Symphonic Orchestra.

2011 to 2014 member of the Tom Coster Trio.

Numerous projects, like currently Wolfgang Lackerschmid Connection and Flying Spirits.

Since 1997 own concert series »jazzattack« in Krefeld with musicians of the national and international jazz scene.

Teaching at Conservatory For Music And Theater Bern, Switzerland, at Robert Schumann Conservatory Duesseldorf und at Folkwang University of Arts, Essen. Teaching at workshops and masterclasses like »Summer Jazz Hilden«.

Founder member and former chairman of the cultural association Kultur in Krefeld e.V.